Academic Level: Postgraduate

Word Count: ~3,000 Words

Referencing Style: OSCOLA

Deadline: 4 Days

Result: A+ Grade Achieved

2. Assignment Objectives

This case study aimed to:

- Evaluate recent developments in criminal justice reform

- Analyse policy changes within the UK and US legal systems
- Provide a legal critique of prison reform and restorative justice
- Apply theoretical concepts to real-world law enforcement challenges

3. Client Brief

“I need a case study analysis on criminal justice reform focusing on legal frameworks, the role of restorative justice, and the failures of traditional punitive systems. OSCOLA referencing only.”

4. Our Expert's Approach

Research & Case Selection:

- Choose relevant cases from the UK and US legal archives
- Reviewed official reform proposals and legal policy papers

Structured Legal Argument:

- Discussed limitations of mandatory sentencing and over-incarceration
- Integrated real-world examples such as the Lammy Review (UK) and First Step Act (US)

Restorative Justice Focus:

- Examined legal theory vs. practical reform outcomes
- Highlighted community-led justice initiatives and pilot programs

Referencing & Formatting:

- Used OSCOLA citation rules throughout
- Included legal acts, court judgments, and statutory instruments

5. Sample Content Preview (use watermark or blur in PDF)

“Restorative justice marks a paradigm shift in the criminal legal system by emphasising rehabilitation over retribution. According to the Lammy Review (2017), systemic racial disparities in sentencing demand a more community-centric approach to justice...”
